This petition filed under Sections 94 & 151 read with Order XXXIX Rules 1 and 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, praying that this Hon'ble Court may be pleased to grant an order of temporary prohibitory injunction restraining the Respondents/Defendants 1 to 3 and/or men under them from further making, publishing or distributing any defamatory or false or libellous content against the Petitioner/Plaintiff on any online or offline platform which affects the right to privacy and right to life which can tarnish the goodwill and reputation of the Petitioner/Plaintiff.

This petition having come up before me for hearing on 29.05.2025 and the Court on the same day passed the following.

ORDER

This is a petition filed by the petitioner/plaintiff under Order XXXIX Rule 1 and 2 read with Section 151 CPC for temporary prohibitory injunction.

Heard the petitioner. Perused the records. I am satisfied that a prima facie case exists in favour of the petitioner and that the object of granting temporary injunction would be defeated if notice is ordered to the other side. Hence an order of ad-interim injunction is passed restraining the 1st to 3rd respondents, their men or agents from making, publishing or distributing any defamatory or false or libelous contents/news against the petitioner / plaintiff on any platform online or offline which would tarnish the goodwill or reputation of the petitioner, without any valid proof of contents/news or in an unlawful manner, until further orders.

Comply with stipulations in Order XXXIX Rule 3. Issue interim injunction. Issue urgent notice to 1st to 3rd respondents. Issue notice to other respondents. For return of notice 03.06.2025.

(Pronounced by me, in the open court on this the 29th day of May, 2025).
